

Modus Operandi

By Anna Von Reitz

A quick overview of some very common diabolical practices and truisms that we all need to know about the common Enemy of Mankind:

1. The Lies are always complex and convoluted and full of verbiage and detail. The Truth is always simple.

Let your "yes" be "yes" and your "no" be "no". When it comes to any business agreements or legal communications or anything else of that sort, more is truly less.

2. Whatever the Vermin are doing or trying to pull off themselves, is what they will accuse others of doing. The English saying is: "The pot always calls the kettle black."

If they are lying, they will accuse their opponents of lying --- so "always carefully consider the source".

3. The Vermin function according to duality --- by setting up two "sides" to everything, and then pitting the two sides against each other, while they sit on the sidelines and benefit themselves from the conflict they have created.

For example: the Civil War, the Israeli-Palestinian fight, and the current situation in which the US NAVY (municipal corporation) has attacked Alaska. The Vermin love to fool us into fighting ourselves and hurting each other--- and then sanctimoniously blaming us for the conflict they engineered.

4. The Vermin have also adopted the Hegelian Dialectic: they create a problem [like fiat money] and then they come forward with the solution to the problem they created [like gold-backed money] and everybody stupidly thanks them and keeps them in power and lets them profit like bandits from their guile.
5. They will sacrifice small fry and low-hanging fruit to save themselves and draw attention away from their own actions. These distractions have allowed them to get away with horrendous crimes in the past, and we just keep on getting suckered into and distracted by the mini-dramas they create.
6. Most of all, these creatures PRETEND TO BE THEIR ENEMIES. They insinuate themselves and infiltrate all the groups, especially religious groups, they wish to undermine. They have done this to Judaism for Millenia.

For some reason people think that Jesus was being poetic or euphemistic when he called them "the Synagogue of Satan" and they misread the other Bible passages that speak of those "who appear to be Jews, but are not". This is literal. This is accurate.

They pretend to be Jews, but are anything but. In the same way, they pretend to be Catholic or pretend to be Muslim. Often, they present themselves as being "More Jewish than Jewish" or "More Catholic than the Pope" or among the most passionate followers of Islam---- and it is all a big joke to them.

If you are going to effectively combat the wiles and intrigues and poisonous, diabolical wit of these creatures, you must have your own head very firmly screwed on and your observational skills well honed. Be forewarned and aware of these things I am telling you and don't let yourselves be tricked into forming "sides" and fighting each other. Look carefully and you will see what I am telling you is so.
