Opening

PRAYER: Paradise Creator Deities, Divine Parents, Magisterial Son, and all of other seraphic helpers, our intention today is to provide more spiritual energy into the circuits of planetary mind and memory that this world's system of consciousness may open to the higher emanations of LOVE that originate at the center of all reality. Mother and Father, you know exactly where we are on this planet's transformational journey, and we pledge ourselves to the sacred service of this world, bringing it back to life—life in the universe, life according to divine plans for this world. We ask you to weave us together as one, one in Spirit, mind, heart, and soul. Thank you for amplifying our own energy systems that what we generate today may be put to good use in to the areas where there is great need for your children to receive. Thank you for your MERCY and GRACE extended to this world, and may your WILL be done now.

Lesson

MICHAEL: PEACE be upon you, my beloved children. This is your Father Michael, and I welcome today to this forum wherein we will collaborate once again to build the energies of LOVE upon this beautiful world. You are beginning a new year, and I know that there is great hope in the hearts of many individuals who are striving to attain more spiritual self-mastery over their human condition. And it is good that you would strive to achieve this as this is one of the purposes for your human life experience.

The door to the Father is open to one and all. It is an inner door that you open through your willingness to become more Godlike in thought, word, and deed. It is a stupendous journey to take, and I well remember my human life experiences as I walked this earth, learning the ways of Spirit and perfecting my human nature that I could indeed achieve my potential as a human. This is one of the things that you and I have in common, my children. I as your Father am here to support you as you ascend through the universe. In my brotherly persona as Jesus, I am here to walk the path with you, helping you make diligent daily progress as you live each day.

This is a part of your path that you must walk each day. You cannot escape your human nature. It is fundamental to who you are at this stage of your being. I well understand the challenges you face, especially now during this time when there is so much separation energy on the planet: the separation that you are experiencing extricating yourselves from the rebellion mindset, and also dealing with the separation that you feel from your brothers and sisters who are still awakening or have yet to awaken.

To support you and you brethren in this endeavor, I invite you now to focus on the intention, motivation, and willingness to receive fundamental LOVE that comes from your inner Creator Source through your Indwelling Spirit. FOUNDATIONAL LOVE does exist at the core your beings within your Personalities. And your human natures need this FOUNDATIONAL LOVE from the Father. I as your Universe Father and Sovereign am here to help you to receive that today and to encourage your achievement in growing in this more consistently as you live and express who you are with love, compassion, and understanding to your brothers and sisters.

Let us begin. Take some slow, deliberate, and deep breaths. Ask for your mental current to gravitate to the level of your Indwelling Spirit. Ask your Spirit to now convey to the FOUNDATIONAL LOVE that you need, especially in your human nature that gives you more of that expansive quality of LIGHT and LIFE that supports your growth. As you focus on your Spirit, I will also engage with you, supporting your human nature to receive more of the FOUNDATIONAL LOVE which is your birthright as your child. Open to this now and receive. Breathe and relax as the energies stir and deepen within you. Feel that need for that divine inheritance of LOVE to go deep and then stay in this realm of pure experience. (Pause)

There is a communication system between the existential level of Life where the divine patterns of perfection are created that extend down into the experiential evolutionary levels where you exist. Feel that need for that communication pathway and process to strengthen—to clear any negative residual patterns from mind and memory, that you may more deeply perceive the FOUNDATIONAL LOVE that supports your spiritual growth. Having that willingness to receive is enough to open the door, and it is my desire that my children especially of this world the other rebellion spheres would experience this FOUNDATIONAL LOVE more and more each day. Drink deeply of this infusion, my children. Let it go into your bodies, into cell memory, even into the depths of your bones, your nerves, your blood vessels as these energies bring you closer to that LOVE in which you all exist. (Pause)

As you receive this, if you wish to focus on an affirmation to maintain that clarity within your mind to strengthen your spiritual connection, allow these words to gently repeat in your mind: MY HUMAN IS RECEIVING FOUNDATIONAL LOVE. MY HUMAN NATURE IS RECEIVING FOUNDATIONAL LOVE. MY HUMAN NATURE IS RECEIVING FOUNDATIONAL LOVE. Experience what this means within, allowing the energies to deepen and broaden in you, engaging with the higher levels of your minds to perceive more Father-consciousness. (Pause)

As your own internal foundation grows in the LOVE that emanates from the Father in Paradise, you may notice that there are new thoughts and feelings stimulating your mind. Pay close attention to what you perceive. Act upon those notions. They are there for a reason. And it is by you exploring and acting upon these thoughts and feelings that you will make real more of the potential seeded within you through your own unique Personalities. It is very important that you understand the creative potency you have, my children, because it is up to you now to make those changes that you wish to see to occur on the planet for its continued development in a positive and spiritual manner.

We have encouraged you in this way for many years now. It is more important than ever to remember that this is part of your cosmic responsibility, not only as a planetary citizen, but as universe member of our Family of Love. You are not alone as you accomplish these objectives, but it is largely by your own willingness that you catalyze these abilities within you to stay the course and to grow and express who you are through love, compassion, and understanding, giving your souls the spiritual momentum it needs to continue to grow and shine more brightly into planetary consciousness. In this infusion we are providing you today, allow these energies to deepen especially that your human nature and the various components of it may truly receive and perceive those fundamental connections you have to the very Source of all reality. (Pause)

As your own foundation of love grows, notice how you are motivated and moved by your own Indwelling Spirit and guardian seraphim to be out in the world in an enhanced manner. You are the light. You are the love expressing the divine ways of life into planetary consciousness. Remember this, my children, and grow in the depths and breadths and heights of this LOVE. And surely all things will renew themselves in time as you explore these rich dimensions of Spirit which are a part of your divine inheritance. (Pause)

We will move your focus into the planetary circuits of mind now. However, I withdraw in this manner to leave you in the capable hands of your Magisterial Son Monjoronson who will direct the energies from this point onward. Know that your human natures are refining themselves in the greater dimension of your Personalities. Walk boldly into the greater dimensions of who you are that what you can achieve through Spirit Within may be an inspiration to all around you and assist in the greater transformation of my world that is so dear to my heart due to my human life experience. I leave you in my PEACE, my children. Good day.

MONJORONSON: My beloved brethren, I join you once again in this circuit conscious collaboration, and I am happy to conduct the energies that you are now generating from your hearts. This is Monjoronson.

FOUNDATIONAL LOVE is a flowing dynamic of the Father's Personhood that is available to one and all throughout the vast starry cosmos. As you open to greater flow of the Father's LOVE in you, you can expand that LOVE by sending it out into the circuits of planetary mind, which I now invite you to do.

As you have so many times in the past, engage your mind by focusing on the world before you. Place the world in your hearts, and let FOUNDATIONAL LOVE spiral around the globe, counterclockwise, north to south pole as we minister into this greater bandwidth and support more of this FOUNDATIONAL LOVE to generate its presence in human nature. Your brothers and sisters need this now. They may be unaware of this great need, but you know they need this. By holding this focus, you can supply it, especially when you feel that compassion, empathy, forbearance, and patience for what they are experiencing in their own human lives. Expand your own ability to share this FOUNDATIONAL LOVE through your love for them at whatever level you can experience and feel. (Pause)

If it is helpful to hold focus, simply repeat the affirmation: HUMAN NATURE IS GROWING IN FOUNDATIONAL LOVE. HUMAN NATURE IS GROWING IN FOUNDATIONAL LOVE. HUMAN NATURE IS GROWING IN FOUNDATIONAL LOVE. Hold this as best you can as this dynamic continues to speak into planetary mind, connecting to many various energetic endowments that we have co-created with you over the years. Let this reach new levels within the human nature all around the globe, inviting more people to awaken to the Spirit Within and to help them reconcile within themselves what they need to heal and transform. (Pause)

Invite the earth plane memory circuits to open to this infusion today that more planetary mind and memory may receive the endowments of FOUNDATIONAL LOVE. Many cultures especially in your ancient past were able to perceive these signals of LOVE. And it is good that you would remember this in your minds and bodies to help you continue to reconcile the challenges that you have experienced in your human nature that have been conditioned by the ways and sophistries of rebellion. Know that you no longer have to be subjected to their influence, my brethren, especially now as you feel and deepen this need for human nature to more deeply experience FOUNDATIONAL LOVE. Feel that need of humanity to experience this FOUNDATIONAL LOVE. Your brothers and sisters who have yet to awaken may not even recognize that this is a core need of their beings. Yet in you holding this intention, these energies can spread more widely, broadly, deeply into the memory and act as a catalyst to awaken the spiritual nature. (Pause)

Continue to focus on HUMANITY IS GROWING IN FOUNDATIONAL LOVE as human nature continues to gently calibrate to what it is we are weaving into planetary circuits. (Pause)

One of the intentions of this infusion today is to help you recognize the beauty of the human nature as it was divinely designed. Begin to appreciate the perfecting component within humanity—how you were designed to evolve one day at a time through your thoughts, feelings, and actions. This is the way of life that so few people recognize. There have been impediments placed upon human nature that would take you away from your divine dignity and value. It is our intention today to help you from a personal and planetary standpoint to open to the goodness and beauty of the human nature and the truth of how it contributes to the divine plan of evolution. This is something that needs to be fully restored into planetary mind now. And we thank you for your willingness to hold this, that this may be woven into planetary circuits through the help of many seraphic and other celestial helpers who are guiding you on this path.

This is a meditation focus and experience that you can easily spend in your stillness cultivation each day. Know that your own path is assured. Where you can expend your energies is in focusing into the planetary circuits of mind. Take more responsibility for your own influence into the collective. You have more power here than you may even imagine. So, take a few moments to let these words settle in. Let the meaning and value go deeper into your mind that you may send this focus forth in your personal times of stillness communion with the Father within you. This adds to the overall synergy that the planet needs—spiritual dynamism to support the healing process and the movement toward Light and Life. (Pause)

My dear brethren, thank you for your focus today building human nature in its divine inheritance. We are deeply grateful for your participation. Let us spend these final moments together in worship of the One in all things exist—the Paradise Creator Father, whose LOVE permeates and pervades all reality. Take a few moments to elevate your gaze to that Paradise level. Open your hearts with appreciation, love, faith, and the willingness to be of service to this world in its great time of need. Speak to the Father what your heart wishes to convey and we will spend these quiet moments in worship together. (Pause)

May the DIVINE REFLECTION from Paradise convey the plans of perfecting for Urantia. Feel your appreciation for this DIVINE REFLECTION imprinting upon planetary mind, encouraging more hearts to open to this great transformative process now underway as part of Michael's plans of correction for His beloved beleaguered world. Continue to send your gratitude to the Father that more spiritual energies may calibrate into the planet, bringing about a great change of heart in human consciousness. (Pause)

Take a moment or so to descend from Paradise with gratitude to the Paradise Creator Deities for their magnificent plans of evolution. Move down to this evolutionary experiential level of planetary life. Ask for your Holy Mother Spirit to imbue this planet with more of Her JOYFUL SONG OF LIFE—this exquisite melody that emanates from the very center of Her being, helping her children to experience what it means to be a fully alive and awakened human being, co-creating the divine plan through divine guidance of the Spirit Within.

See yourselves standing on the earth plane in that place the Father has secured you on His evolutionary continuum of LIFE, and invite Mother's JOYFUL SONG OF LIFE to calibrate more deeply into you. (Pause)

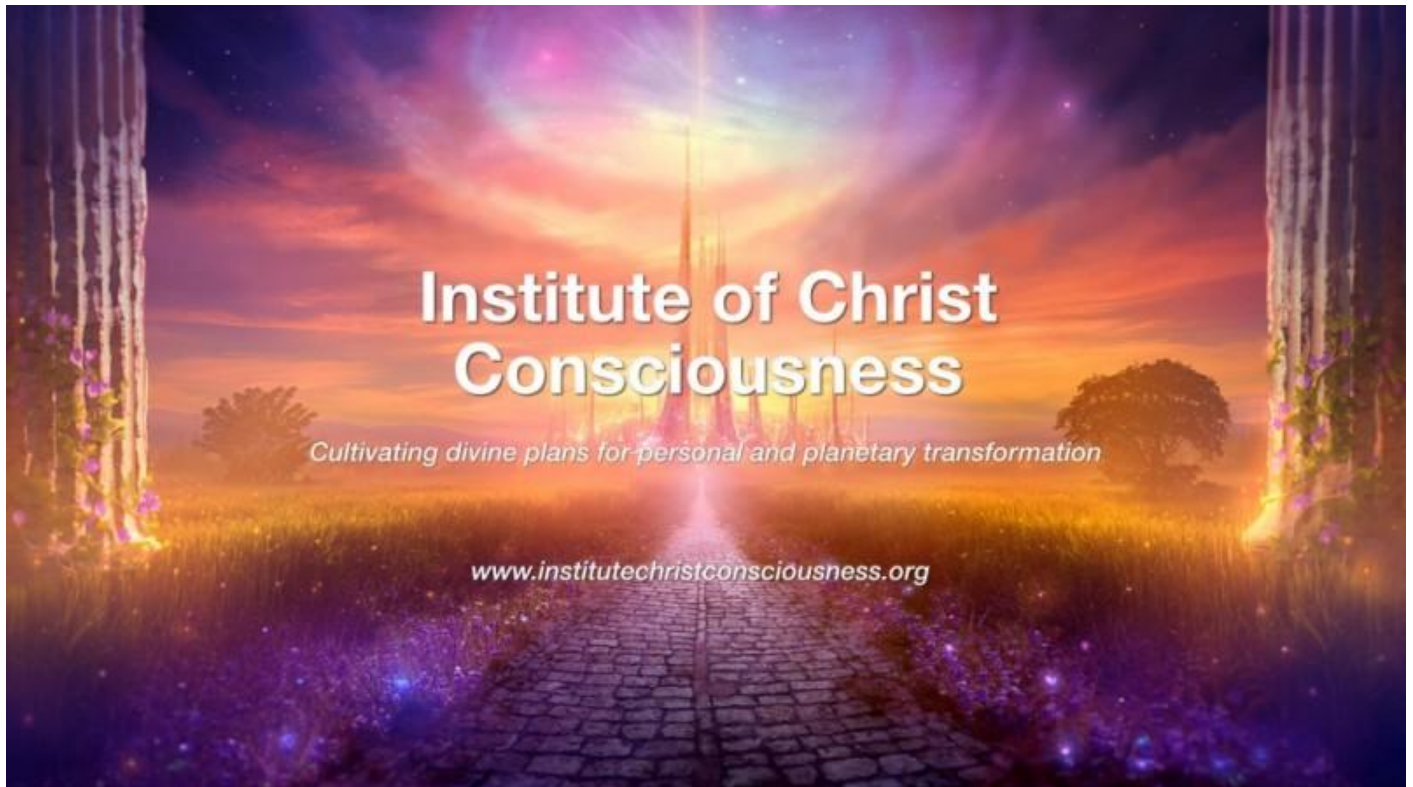

Invite Mother's SONG to weave into planetary mind and memory, and may Her endowments open more hearts to the beauty of the human nature and the joy you can experience within it. (Pause)

Closing

Beloved brethren, we are deeply grateful for your participation today. As we complete the objectives for this call, we invite you to continue to ask for FOUNDATIONAL LOVE to stimulate human nature, enhancing creativity and the connections you have to the realm and ways of Spirit. More and more take responsibility for your self-mastery. Come to your Father Michael with your questions about this momentous undertaking that you have the ability to achieve and know that as you do this you will experience more joy in your human nature as you grow in the Father's LOVE.

What more can I say? We leave this in your hands now, but we are always working behind the scenes of your lives, encouraging you and bringing in those dynamics energies of Spirit that will change life here forever on Urantia, and make it a vibrant and inspirational planet in the universe of Nebadon. And with that I withdraw, and I wish you a good day!
