A family member should attend to the rest of their family in five ways:

1. by treating all other members as equals,
2. by being courteous,
3. by being generous,
4. by honoring other members' authority within the family,
5. and above all, by being true to their word.

Families who are loved like this, return their love in five ways:

1. by guarding other family members' properties,
2. by protecting one another,
3. by helping in times of trouble,

4. by eliminating dangers which others do not see,
5. and by helping even the extended members of one's own family.
