Opening

PRAYER: Mother and Father, we center our intention today to collaborate with our Planetary Seraphim in the healing of the circuits of consciousness of this world that more of your ways may prevail here. As we are encircling in your love, connected in those places of heart connection, soul connection, personality and Spirit connection, may we operate as a unified whole under the guidance of our Seraphim to direct these energies of our hearts to those areas where more good can be produced. We are glad to be of service and we thank you for your WILL being done to our efforts of collaboration with our beloved Seraphim. Thank you.

Lesson

MONJORONSON: Greetings, my beloved brethren! This is Monjoronson. It has been some time since I addressed this group personally, and I thank you for all of the ways you have answered the inner call of faith to collaborate with us in this mighty venture of helping this planet move forward in the divine plans of correction that Christ Michael has prepared for this world. I have good news to share with all of you today. Many of the recalcitrant circuits of Urantian consciousness long steeped in the legacy of the rebellion are now breaking open, and this is affording more truth light to pervade these mindsets that have long corrupted the Urantian system of consciousness. This is a time we have long anticipated and we thank every Urantian who has stepped forward to be of service to this world in its time of great need. This group is one of many who are endeavoring to heal this world. Not every group has the perspective that the Urantia text provides, but that is no hindrance for humans to desire that this world be healed of its spiritual, moral and social ills. There is a worldwide momentum forming now that will help to sweep these recalcitrant circuits clean of the rebellion influence. This is what we are here to do today with your assistance and desires for more healing to occur. We have shared a bit of information with you about these recalcitrant mindal circuits that contain thought forms that have perverted the divine plan from operating fully within Urantian consciousness. We will continue to focus in these circuits and ask you to provide that emotional or heart desire for more healing to prevail here. These recalcitrant circuits have many distorted thought forms, you might call them, concepts that have been beholden to a deviation of the divine plan. And as this is so ingrained within your overall planetary system of consciousness, it is not an easy undertaking for these mind thought forms to be corrected. What you provide that is of great value to us is that desire—human will—for more healing to occur. There must be a concentrated effort and desire of human will in order for these circuits to change. So here is where we ask for your input—to simply feel and trust that you are creating an environment for us to move and augment that circuit for these changes to occur. As we begin, I invite you to place your focus upon your heart centers. Let your hearts open with love for this world, love for the divine plan of evolution, love for your brothers and sisters, desire for more of the Father's presence to prevail here. Breathe deeply. Allow your mental chatter to quiet as the energies of the heart begin to swell, letting the emotional desire for more love to prevail become the predominating emotion and thought form you provide to us. As you are all now unified in this circuit, let it now gently expand.

(Pause) Ask for Michael's PRESENCE and LOVE to flow through you now. And as you begin to experience it, let His LOVE flow from you, through you and out from your heart center to embrace the globe; taking a few moments to envision the planet before you in your mind's eye.

(Pause) Allow the word and its spiritual meaning and value of REDEMPTION to blanket the globe in that familiar counter-clockwise rotation. Hold that focus as best you can. Ask for Michael's LOVE to flow through you and into this REDEMPTION visualization. We begin.

(Pause) What we are outworking today is a very distorted and insidious influence that the rebellion spawned of how human life and its value to the Father's plan has long influenced human thought and expression. We ask you now to simply focus on the words THE VALUE OF HUMAN LIFE. Again, allow this to move into the globe as you continue to ask for these REDEMPTION energies to go deeper into these circuits where there is great need for THE VALUE OF HUMAN LIFE to be restored.

(Pause) Continue to ask Michael to support you through His LOVE and His VALUATION and VALIDATION of human life to move through you and into this circuit we are co-creating with you now.

(Pause) This infusion from Spirit of THE VALUE OF HUMAN LIFE has implications for you. Many Urantians still harbor great feelings of unworthiness—a sense of purposelessness. They do not know they are greatly valued sons and daughters of God. Hence this type of feeling and the thought forms it spawns create great distortion within and individual's concept of self. It distorts the perspective and understanding that they are indeed worthy and highly valued and loved for their humanity. What the rebellion created within humans is this disconnection from the Paradise Father and the value of each personality as unique, precious, deserving of life and love and the pursuit of one's ability to grow in Father likeness and consciousness. What we are doing with you today is increasing the spiritual pressure to move in these circuits where this devaluation influence is still operative. Humans did not create this, but they have long perpetuated this through this adherence to this rebellion influence.

What we ask of you now is to simply desire that VALUATION and VALIDATION from Michael to flood this planet, to go into those areas where this recalcitrant distorted energy is still operative. We know where that is and all we ask for you is to hold the focus for Michael's PRESENCE to prevail here. You need not focus on where this is or how it is impacting the world, only on the desire for Michael's PRESENCE to prevail.

(Pause) If it is helpful for you to maintain the focus, let the words THE VALUE AND VALIDATION OF HUMAN LIFE to spiral around the planet as we take this energy and apply it into areas where it can be perceived that human life is not only important to the divine plan but integral.

(Pause) Your focus today is helping the REDEMPTION energies move into those areas where the devaluation influence is loosening its grip on the human mind, that more VALUE and VALIDATION can be perceived to help those individuals still operating in these devalued energies to help them receive the REDEMPTION they need to begin to glimpse another way of perceiving humanity and the reality of life.

(Pause) Human life has great purpose and meaning and value to the Father's plans. Many people may intellectually understand this. What is most need now is for humans to feel this—to experience it and to deeply feel the LOVE of Father Within. The scourge of human unworthiness must be expunged. What you are helping us to implement today is more of that human desire for this influence to be outworked through great love and compassion via this infusion of REMPTION and the VALUE AND VALIDATION OF LIFE that come from your Divine Parents and the Father Himself in Paradise. Allow these energies to also stir in you to help you release any feelings of devaluation that you may still harbor, even at levels of which you are hardly aware. It is time for humanity to come into this deeper awareness of its purpose and the construction of evolutionary Deity, the caretaking of this world to reach its ultimate destiny. Let the human mindal circuits be opened with this revelation of truth that all of the divine plans for this planet—for individuals and for the collective—to prevail.

(Pause) As these collaborative circuits continue to integrate into the resistant patterns, know that some of your own inner embedded shadows will start to make their presence known within your minds. Ask for your Parents to assist you that you may see the immense value that you have to the unfolding of the divine plans. This will help your Indwelling Spirits convey more truth to augment your own inner recognition of what your own divine plan wants to help you achieve. The fullness of human potential has barely scratched the surface of what you can do as a collective planet to co-create with Spirit and bring about the movement toward Light and Life. While we gather with you to serve the collective, we are also to serve individually that you may release any feelings of unworthiness or shame or doubt or abandonment that was spawned by the rebellion, and to come into that greater place within your own beings to feel the inner well of LOVE breaking open new places within you for the Father's PRESENCE to prevail. You have this power within, my brethren! It is how far you want to take this is up to you. We desire that your participation in these group calls will help you perceive the true worth that you bring to the unfolding of the divine plan especially at this juncture as you assist in the Correcting Time agenda. And the more you establish your own inner sense of selfworth and value by communing with the Father will you have greater mindal presence to contribute to what is now unfolding within the circuits of Urantian consciousness. Allow these words to settle in as you continue to ask Michael's presence to flow through you, amplifying the circuits of REDEMPTION that more VALUE AND VALIDATION may be perceived in the collective of humanity's importance to the divine plan of all life and the presence of evolving Deity of the Supreme Being. (Pause)

Closing

My beloved brethren, thank you for your participation, your faith, your trust in us at this very monumental time of change upon Urantia. I am happy to share with you that we have completed what we set forth to accomplish with you. These circuits of co-creation will be established far and wide and continue to integrate into those areas where the devaluation of human life has long held sway; to open up this circuit to new truths that more of the Father's PRESENCE may prevail here. We have asked you to continue to focus on the REDEMPTION energies during your stillness times and we will continue to ask you to do that. But now we ask you to feel that desire for the VALUE AND VALIDATION OF HUMAN LIFE to be restored in these circuits of consciousness, that more people may come out of their own sense of unworthiness and feel how deeply they are loved and regarded by the Father and by all LIFE itself. We conclude this call now and will continue to minister to this world and to you. Remember to do your share each day as you are now contributing to the evolution of Deity consciousness on this planet. And remember well that this is not only a privilege but it is your responsibility as a cosmic citizen and to keep in mind that you have immense value to the Father's plan, and to continue to seek the Spirit's leadings and guidance that you may be fully empowered in who you are and serve to the highest degree of your abilities, achieving more of the potential the Father has seeded within you as mighty sons and daughters. My blessings of peace are upon you, and may you continually shine in the delight of divine favor. Good day
