Topic: Focus on Evolutionary Deity and the Return of Urantia's Divine Inheritance.

PRAYER: On this day of celebration, we lift our voices and our hearts up to you, Mother and Father; especially with appreciation for you, Father, for what you accomplished here as a human, showing us the way of love, of peace, of light, of truth, that we may replicate your example in our own lives, being the way-showers that you so magnificently paved the way for us to follow. And we would follow that with our full heart, but you know the challenges that we face on this planet. So today, on this Easter Sunday, we again join with you and our heavenly helpers of all levels and ask for more of the love this planet needs, for more of the life circuits to be integrated into the planetary mind, that more of your children may awaken and remember who they are as children of divine destiny. And also, we ask for this planet to be healed at the physical level. We ask for the renewal of life to occur at all levels. And we are so grateful that we can come to you with these requests, Mother and Father. We also invite the presence of our beloved Monjoronson, as He continues to conduct the activities of DIVINE JUSTICE. And as always, we thank you for weaving us together as one in your holy WILL that it may be done through our efforts, through your MERCY and GRACE. Thank you so much this opportunity to be of service. And so it is.

NEBADONIA: Greetings, my beloved children! This is your Mother Nebadonia who speaks! As you deepen into the presence of your Spirit, allow me to move in you and build you in more of the enhancements your energy systems need now at this particular time to calibrate to the renewing life circuits and currents that are a part of your human composition.

There is nothing you need to do, other than to focus on me as your Mother. Take some deep breaths now. Feel that need to be nurtured by me and the life currents I contain that you may be fed with more vitality in the various levels of your human composition. On this Easter Sunday, when so many people are focusing on the resurrection of Jesus, let your hearts be light with the awareness that life is a continuum and you are all moving in that continuum now. Some of it is through your conscious recognition, but of most of this occurs at a deep unconscious level.

My presence in you is to support your ability to receive more of the enhancements of LIFE that I wish to endow into you. Settle into this notion, my children, and simply receive me. And then, if it is helpful for you to focus, let these words: LIFE LOVES ME AND MOTHER LOVES ME commingle together in your thoughts and allow the energies to flow into you, my beloved children. (Pause)

This world has suffered a great deprivation of the life-enhancing circuits that would render you more spiritually receptive to the information you need to cultivate life. Many, many circuitry adjustments and repairs have been necessary to reconstruct what has been buried for many millennia. And it is now time for the resurrection of these life circuits to now be imparted into the human system of consciousness and to weave together you as the human caretakers of this world into the fabric of LIFE that you may be about the business of repairing the damage that has been done here.

You do not do this alone. You have ample help of many spiritual and universe brothers and sisters who are ready to assist you in making these changes that will be imparted over the coming years and even into the decades and centuries to come. For now, I invite you to expand your conceptual awareness of what is LIFE through the infusion of your Spirit to aid your conscious mind with more light illumination for you to perceive the deeper meaning and value of what I speak into you today.

Continue to focus on LIFE LOVES ME, MOTHER LOVES ME, and allow your Spirit to weave together all of these different facets, that you may become more coherent, and harmonious, and congruent with LIFE. (Pause)

Spiritual renewal is underway on Urantia. You are all part of this ongoing renewal process, and so I encourage you to come to me as your Mother and simply sit in my presence with this objective to be renewed in Spirit. This is part of your divine inheritance and birthright being restored to you. But it is up to you whether or not to engage with what I wish to impart to you. We always allow our children to make those life-changing decisions. Sometimes it is helpful to have an experience to support your faith-growth in these dynamics. What you receive is not necessarily perceivable with the physical eyes, but you have senses within your mind and body that can relate to what is being given and provide you with greater context of what you need in order to grow into strong, healthy spiritualized human beings growing in your soul on this sacred human journey.

So let these words settle in as I continue to minister to you and open yourself to me that I may gently expand you in these life circuits that are such an important component of your human composition. Continue to receive. (Pause)

There is so much you need to learn about the reality and fabric of LIFE, my children. What is being returned to you now is part of the restoration of the life circuits and currents that you will be cultivating in the years to come. You have a right to learn how to use these circuits for the betterment of all life here on Urantia. It is something that you grow in understanding a bit at a time. For you see, you are truly learning about the fabric of ETERNITY and INFINITY and how it extrapolates into the continuum of LIFE in the dimension you now exist. You are moving into an era of cosmic consciousness. What does this mean? It means you are moving from the planetary centric view of reality into a much vaster, broader continuum of LIFE in which you play an integral part.

In your last session with your Father Michael, it was incumbent upon you to place your focus on EVOLUTIONARY DEITY, for this is part of the growing fabric of LIFE. And now, I simply invite you to add this other focus. See yourself standing in a field of EVOLUTIONARY DEITY. It is as if you are drinking up this energy and information from the root system of your energetic being, allowing the loving energies of LIFE and my presence to gently expand you, bringing you back into a deeper remembrance of who you are in this vast domain of LIFE as a part of the EVOLVING DEITY expression that is uniquely yours to embody and share with the world, share with all life. Open to this now, my children. (Pause)

Allow these various dynamics—energetic forms of Spirit to imprint more deeply upon your minds and bodies. Allow the energies to move deep into your memory circuits, even down into the physical level. (Pause)

There is one more focus to add as you simply receive now. Invite your Father Michael to expand you through the Spirit of Truth. Let His divine VINE feed your human branch, helping hoping you grow in the attributes of His majestic character that you may become more Father-like through your own unique expression. He is your VINE; you are His branch. You are always connected to Him. Receive from your Father now. (Pause)

I will leave you now, my children, but truly I am always in you and you are always in me. It is just in this manner that I withdraw. Your Magisterial Son Monjoronson will speak next and escort you in the activities for the planet to receive His life enhancing circuits and currents. Grow strong and vital in the energies and dynamics of LOVE, LIGHT, and LIFE, my children, and always remember the divine dignity invested in you by the Father in Paradise Himself. My blessings are upon you and I wish you all a most blessed good day.

MONJORONSON: Beloved brethren, this is Monjoronson, and I am pleased to continue in the wake of the energies Mother has been providing to this planet during this focused session. As you have done so many times before, envision the world being held in the larger dynamic of EVOLUTIONARY DEITY. Let this be a field of such love and safety that it imparts a mighty impression upon the human memory system that LIFE loves human nature. Mother loves humanity. Father loves humanity. Your brothers and sisters have been so deficient in love and it is now time for the deeper and fuller remembrance of love speak volumes into the hearts and the energetic circuits of the human nature and composition.

All we ask for you is to hold these dynamics as best you can, seeing the world being held in this evolutionary dynamic, letting the words LIFE, MOTHER, AND FATHER LOVES HUMANITY, to spiral around the world and to hold that intention for these energies to go deep, deep, deep, into the memory circuits, liberating the human mind from its past conditioning and uplifting more humans to recognize who they are and the Father's presence within them.

Hold this as best you can, as we minister now in these greater circuits all around the globe. It is time to end the deprivation of love on this world. Hold that intention for your brothers and sisters to receive the love of their divine inheritance. Hold this as best you can now. (Pause)

As these energetic changes continue to be conducted, you may shift focus to these words: RESTORE HUMANITY'S DIVINE INHERITANCE; RESTORE HUMANITY'S DIVINE INHERITANCE; RESTORE HUMANITY'S DIVINE INHERITANCE. Let these words stream forth from your heart and let them impart and imprint into the planetary circuits all around the globe at all dimensional levels down into memory. (Pause)

Invite the dynamics of EVOLUTIONARY DEITY to feed the circuits that are now being adjusted for humanity's DIVINE INHERITANCE to be returned, helping more people remember who they are and why they are here. (Pause)

The impartation of new life circuits upon Urantia will continue to change life here for the better. Many and varied circuits are now weaving into the planetary system of mind and memory. Some individuals will respond very favorably to these new life-enhancing circuits. Others will be confused and disoriented because this reality is such a stark contrast to the way in which they think, feel and live. What is significant during this time is that you remain in the state of faith, trusting in the unfolding of Michael's plans of correction that this world may continue to move forward on its trajectory toward Light and Life.

It is challenging for the human mind to truly comprehend all of the necessary changes that were required in order for your world to take this major step forward. We have so appreciated your trust in coming onto these calls that you may hold the focus for these vital changes to be made real in human mind and memory.

In the coming days, you will notice more changes underway in your own human energy systems. Be mindful that you are the controller of your body and mind. The Father's Spirit in you will help you adjust your thinking to render you more positively able to care for your human structure and being. Pay close attention to what you perceive in Spirit for there is much wisdom to be gained through going through this passage of time when the rebellion sophistries are losing their grasp and the human mind is more poised to the circuits of the Mother Spirit to evolve in EVOLUTIONARY DEITY.

I daresay some of you may be daunted by this immense undertaking and have many, many questions. All will be answered and revealed in time. For now, simply feel that deep intention and longing for Urantia's DIVINE INHERITANCE to be fully restored and all life be renewed in the Father's LOVE. (Pause)

Beloved brethren, I invite you to join with us as we elevate our gaze to that central place of GLORY and DIVINITY where the Creator Deities exist and radiate their LOVE, BEAUTY, and GOODNESS to all the expansive creative design of LIFE. Let your human heart swell with gratitude and praise as best you can and allow the magnificent RADIANCE of Paradise to stream down and uphold you in the radiance of the FOUNDATIONAL LOVE at the core of your being. (Pause)

Father, I thank you for radiating your LOVE into these stalwart souls of Urantia. You know the challenges that the humans of this world have faced, and we thank you for pouring out your presence upon them that they may feel the exquisite embrace of your FOUNDATIONAL LOVE coursing through every cell and every particle of their beings, bringing them back into the bosom of your DIVINE NATURE. (Pause)

One day the world will be fully alive with the divine RADIANCE of Paradise as a way of life. We foresee a very bright future for Urantia. And even though we are here to help you achieve this eventual destiny, it will be many eons of time before you are fully there. Do not let that disturb you from what it is you are to do on a day-to-day basis. Grow strong and steady in this FOUNDATIONAL LOVE.

Envision yourself standing back on the planet as the world is held in the field of EVOLUTIONARY DEITY and you are standing in your own particular place, growing in your soul purpose, letting the light of your soul stream forth from your being and adding into this growing fabric of the Supreme Mind upon Urantia. And as you do this, become more aware of your cosmic responsibility to the Supreme level. It is a part of your DIVINE INHERITANCE and you will gain much from participating more faithfully each day in evolving this as a living reality upon Urantia mind.

So in our final moments together, see your feet firmly planted in EVOLUTIONARY DEITY and your Spirit holding you in this embrace of Paradise. Allow for this dynamic of EXISTENTIAL and EVOLUTIONARY DEITY to unify and become more coherent upon Urantia. (Pause)

My dear brethren, receive our gratitude for what you have held for us to co-create today in this dynamic collaboration of the humans of this world and the higher realms together. While we have accomplished much today, these dynamics will continue to integrate. Be mindful of the information you perceive within. Treat your bodies with love, tenderness, kindness, and treat one another with respect and dignity, patience and tolerance. You are all growing in the varied dimensions of LOVE and this is a new living reality for you. But make no mistake! It is real, it is living and you are all being enhanced that your divine design may operate more fully in you and help you become a larger container and vessel and expresser of the Father's LOVE.

I leave you with much to consider and integrate, my brethren, but trust that all is well and this world is indeed be steered under the careful guidance of your Father Michael into its higher destiny. May you feel His presence even deeper in you today as all things become renewed in HOLY LOVE. Good day.
