Mother Spirit: Revelation of spiritual truth is misunderstood by the peoples of Earth. You have learned somehow that spiritual revelation is for the chosen few, for the prophet. This, my children, is not true. Each of you is capable of having truth revealed through you. That is what revelation means, the process of revealing. Our Father does not choose any above another. If it is your desire to know your Father and to know that He can speak directly with you, that opens the door for daily revelation.

Revelation is not something only for the prophets to have, only for the various saints to have. The reason they receive is because of their sense of complete oneness with God. Anyone may have this when they choose it. I encourage each of you to change that tape in your head and trust the beautiful revelations you truly do receive every single day. Look for them; listen for them; feel them through your five senses. God speaks in miraculous ways and reveals truth, not always with concepts of mind or words in the head. Look for His revelation each day and know that greater sense of oneness that is your birthright.
