4 Jurisdictions Flow Matrix

Notes about this flow matrix.

The process of civilizational growth is based on merit. It is designed to follow a cumulative step-by-step progression through the planetary jurisdictions. It begins by first earning sovereignty over the Soil jurisdiction, second the Land, third the Sea, and fourth the Air jurisdiction in that specific order. Delays in this progress are permissible as long as the flow remains in the correct order. But if all, or even part of this flow is altered (through reversal or inversion or both) then serious problems will result. At the time of this writing we are living through the end results of both a reversal and inversion of this growth process. For approximately 200,000 years of our planetary history the flow of this growth process has been distorted.

A normal and healthy planetary growth process proceeds from the ground up, but for the past 200 millenniums we have been subjected to a top down reversal, and that is in contravention of universe rule. To further complicate matters, in recent generations an inversion of two of these jurisdictions has also occurred. Starting approximately 100 years ago (early part of the twentieth century), the Air jurisdiction inverted its functional position with the Sea jurisdiction. Refer to the bottom part of this chart for more details.

How has this inversion manifested itself in real life? To be quite frank we have all been witnessing it and living through it our entire lives, but few of us have really grasped the true significance of this colossal occurrence. The manifestation of this Air <> Sea inversion is realised through the MUNICIPALIZATION of vast numbers of nations, states, provinces, territories, cities, towns, villages and communities.

The MUNICIPAL system is of the Air jurisdiction, and as such the Air jurisdiction has power over nothing. Refer to the chart in the Planetary Jurisdictions Curriculum LESSON 2 for more details. MUNICIPALIZATION is nothing more than an incorporation scheme for creating profit driven business franchise entities under a parent franchise, this parent being the VATICAN INC. Yet, through this functional inversion, the Air jurisdiction has utterly and unlawfully overstepped its bounds and encroached massively on all the other jurisdictions.

Light and Life categories by planetary jurisdictions

Notes about this entity diagram.

As this diagram illustrates, the major 10 categories of Light and Life development are also intrinsically linked to the planetary jurisdictions. The personal Soil jurisdiction is where all these categories are grounded except for Governance which is purely an impersonal group related function. The further away we get from the Soil and Land the less jurisdictional control is exerted over the Light and Life categories, with the Air jurisdiction having the least control.

Jurisdictional Progress of Civilization

Notes about this flowchart.

This simple flowchart gives a bird's eye view of the problem of jurisdictional encroachment. This is a critical subject which is covered in greater detail in the Planetary Jurisdictions Curriculum LESSON 6.

Jurisdictional Progress of Civilization Timeline

Notes about this timeline.

This simple timeline offers a quick reference to the main personalities of celestial origin involved in the jurisdictional growth of our planet. The lower part of this chart also illustrates the inversion that has occurred with the Air and Sea jurisdictions. There are also 10 corresponding planetary growth categories which are covered in The Light and Life Timeline.

Glossary of Jurisdiction Terms

The terms listed in this glossary are defined according to their usage and meaning on this website, tbgcommission.org

Some of these terms have additional definitions and meanings that are beyond the scope of this site.

- Ø indicates that there are no entries in that section.

admiralty

Refers to the system of laws, courts, judges and Bar attorneys that govern the sea jurisdiction, and also to military (navy) might to police and control the use of the sea jurisdiction.

admiralty law

Admiralty law or maritime law is a body of law that governs nautical issues and private maritime disputes. Admiralty law consists of both domestic law on maritime activities, and private international law governing the relationships between private parties operating or using ocean-going ships. While each legal jurisdiction usually has its own legislation governing maritime matters, the international nature of the topic and the need for uniformity has, since 1900, led to considerable international maritime law developments, including numerous multilateral treaties. Admiralty Law is also known as Martial Law.

Admiralty law may be distinguished from the Law of the Sea, which is a body of public international law dealing with navigational rights, mineral rights, jurisdiction over coastal waters, and the maritime relationships between nations. The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea has been adopted by 167 countries and the European Union, and disputes are resolved at the ITLOS tribunal in Hamburg.

air

One of the four primary natural planetary jurisdictions, and by extension, a man made conceptual jurisdiction derived from this primary natural jurisdiction. The man made air jurisdiction is entirely incorporated, and operates at the extreme opposite of the unincorporated man made soil jurisdiction.

B - Ø

circumscription

A real or imaginary boundary around a two dimensional area or a three dimensional space.

commerce

Refers specifically to an interchange of goods, commodities or services, especially on a large scale, that occurs only in the international jurisdiction of the sea and/or in the global jurisdiction of the air, in between incorporated businesses and persons (not people). See also: trade.

concurrency

A power held or a claim shared by more than one authority or jurisdiction.

corporate

A corporate body is a group of people or an organization that operates under a single name and is often treated as its own entity. There are many different types of corporate bodies. Despite their names, not all corporate bodies are directly related to the business world. Some of these bodies are involved primarily in the government at some level or in representing members of their religion. Usage on this website usually refers to private territorial governmental organizations operating under the international sea jurisdiction and subject to a constitution.

county

A large sovereign division of the soil jurisdiction for the purposes of local administration. Can include farm land, surface water, and one or more villages, towns or cities.

court

In a broad sense; a place for the hearing and determination of cases. There are many types of courts and each jurisdiction has its own specialized system of court. The onus is on the reader to clearly identify which jurisdiction is in play and then locate the applicable court definition for that jurisdiction.

Holy See

The 0.49 km² (0.19 sq mi) of circumscribed soil and land, in the current city of Rome, claimed as the sovereign jurisdiction of the Holy Roman Empire.

incorporated

To be legally incorporated, as a franchise, most frequently within the air jurisdiction under a Municipal charter. A type of company, a legal entity where the ownership has been arranged into shares. A shareholder has no responsibilities to the company and the potential losses of the shareholder are limited to the value of the stock turning to zero in the case of a bankruptcy.
